

Items eligible for Maine's E-Waste Program

Televisions (all sizes)
Monitors

Printers (and ink cartridges)
Laptops

Game systems
Digital picture frames

Other electronic items handled by eWaste at Collection Events

CPUs
Copiers
Fax machines
Scanners
Stereos
Keyboard/Mouse/Peripherals
DVD Players
Cell phones
Remote controls

VCR's
Projectors
Digital cameras
Tape players
PDAs
Speakers
Telephones
Two-way radios
Answering machines

Camcorders
CD players
DVD players
Electric typewriters
Pagers
Microwaves

Items ineligible for Maine's E-Waste Program Not Accepted at Collection Events

Below are products that eWaste Recycling Solutions does not accept at collection events. Please be sure that your brochures/posters publicizing your collection event references these four overall item types and add whatever examples you see fit (or have room for).

White goods

Refrigerators
Stoves
Washing machines
Clothes dryers
Air conditioners
Freezers
Dishwashers
Water heaters

Universal Waste

Batteries
Fluorescent light bulbs
Mercury devices
Mercury thermostats
Motor vehicle mercury switches
Polychlorinated biphenyl ballasts

Small household appliances

Vacuum cleaners
Bread makers
Can openers
Toasters/toaster ovens
Blenders/Mixers
Coffee makers
Hair dryers
Personal hygiene products
De-humidifiers
Humidifiers

Hazardous Household Waste

Pesticides
Paints & Finishes
Vehicle fluids
Cleaning solutions
Medical waste

